

CHRIST MADE SIN, A BELOVED SINFUL MULTITUDE MADE RIGHTEOUS

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2Cor5:21

God, who created and sustains all things, has determined to qualify an innumerable, multi-ethnic multitude of rebels that he loved unconditionally from eternity, to populate his eternal Kingdom of righteousness and peace. His holy character cannot tolerate unrighteousness in his presence so his beloved multitude must be made acceptable in his sight. Their sins and rebellion must be paid for and they must be made righteous as God requires for intimate, eternal, communion with him. They can do nothing for themselves to make themselves acceptable to God, but God himself, in the Person of his Son, has done everything necessary to pay the sin-debt of every last one of them to make them as righteous as God requires for eternity in his presence. This is the consistent message of the entire Bible from Genesis to Revelation. When you read the scriptures, constantly bear this in mind and look for the way God is underlining his determination to qualify his beloved multitude for his eternal presence. AJ

THE BLOOD OF THE DIVINE SIN OFFERING

Before we can worship in peace of conscience and liberty of heart, we must know, on the authority of God's Word and by the power of God's Spirit, the entire question of sin has been forever settled by the blood of the Divine sin offering. All of God's claims and all our necessities as ruined guilty sinners have been forever answered. This gives perfect peace; and in the enjoyment of this peace, we worship God. Because we have a perfect sacrifice, we have a perfect conscience.

LOOKING UNTO JESUS

1. True faith is looking unto the Lord Jesus and not to my faith! It is not when, where, or how, but WHOM!
2. True faith is looking to the Lord Jesus and not to my works. Their presence nor absence is not my righteousness. He is our righteousness.
3. True faith is looking unto the Lord Jesus and not to my trials. As long as Peter looked to Christ, he walked! When he looked to the wind and waves, he sank!
4. True faith is looking to the Lord Jesus and not to the means of grace. We must not confuse the doctrines of grace and the means of grace with grace itself manifested in . . . HIMSELF! Reading the Bible, prayer, worship, offerings, study, orthodoxy, baptism and good works are all means of grace and growth – but only looking to Christ as our all in all keeps them from becoming filthy rags. – author unknown

1 Come, ye that know and fear the Lord,
And lift your souls above;
Let every heart and voice accord,
To sing that God is love! x2

2 This precious truth his word declares,
And all his mercies prove;
Jesus, the Gift of gifts appears,
To show that God is love! x2

3 Behold his patience lengthened out
To those who from him rove;
And calls effectual reach their hearts,
To teach them God is love! x2

4 The work begun is carried on
By power from heaven above;
And every step, from first to last,
Proclaims that God is love! x2

5 O may we all, while here below,
This best of blessings prove;
Till warmer hearts in brighter worlds
Shall shout that God is love! x2

1 'Twas fixed in God's eternal mind
When his dear sons should mercy find;
From everlasting he decreed
When every good should be conveyed.

2 Determined was the manner how
Eternal favours he'd bestow;
Yea, he decreed the very place
Where he would show triumphant grace.

3 Also the means were fixed upon
Through which his sovereign love should run.
So time and place, yea, means and mode,
Were all determined by our God.

4 Vast were the settlements of grace
On millions of the human race;
And every favour, richly given,
Flows from the high decree of heaven.

1 Ye servants of the Lord,
Ye messengers of grace,
Go forth with one accord,
Proclaim a full release;
Jesus has made an end of sin,
And righteousness divine brought in.

2 With tidings great and grand;
Tidings immensely good;
Proclaim, through all the land,
Redemption through his blood.
Jesus has made an end of sin,
And righteousness divine brought in.

3 Ye sinners in distress,
The tidings are for you;
Salvation is of grace,
And full salvation too;
Jesus has made an end of sin,
And righteousness divine brought in.
